

When started driving for the program:

2006

Why began driving:

To volunteer my time to help someone in need.

Number of years driving a car:

44 years

How often Drives:

I serve as a volunteer driver 4 times a week.

Education:

College graduate.

Work/Career Experience:

Driver for the LA Times for about 30 years.

#1 Granny

Family:

I have four children.

Story about a special passenger or special trip:

I drive for a gentleman who is unable to walk and is in a wheelchair. His family is very important to him, but they all live in Los Angeles. I drive him to see his children and siblings every other weekend - it really cheers him up!

Satisfaction from being a volunteer driver:

Seeing him enjoy his family time makes my efforts all worthwhile.