

Stories From The Road

Volunteer Drivers put pen to paper... and tell it like it is!

Stories from the Road introduces the experiences of volunteer drivers who provide transportation to seniors throughout America. Volunteer drivers are becoming an increasingly critical ingredient in the transportation options available to seniors; options that enable seniors to get to their destinations and beyond. Through the simple act of driving, friends, neighbors and family members make contributions and receive benefits which is truly the win-win volunteer experience.

Stories From The Road

Features 95 heartfelt stories from Volunteer Drivers, including 3 Winning Entries from the 2004 STAR Award for Excellence.

Stories From The Road

Provides data and analysis from leading experts in Senior Transportation in America.

Stories From The Road

Gives insight into the two-fold dynamic of aging where the able and the frail meet.

Stories From The Road

Available for purchase in February, 2006 through Amazon.com at $12.95 per copy.

Please visit the Beverly Foundation's web site for a snapshot of the book.

www.beverlyfoundation.org

Beverly Foundation

At the Beverly Foundation, new ideas and options are fostered to enhance mobility and transportation for today's and tomorrow's older population.